Cultural Arts Center & Theatre

Rockmart High School Art Club students with some of their artwork

Dear Friends of the Arts,

Spring has sprung and we are excited to offer you many art classes, workshops, exhibits and performances at the Rockmart Cultural Arts Center and Theatre.
Take time for yourself and enjoy, learn, and excel in the arts this year.

Bill Kettering

I am so proud of the RHS students who hung their Art Show at RCAC and helped clean and paint at the Theatre. We have some amazing youth in Rockmart. I can't wait to see everyone at the RHS Art Gala on April 24 and upcoming performances at the theatre.

We have awesome members and volunteers. We appreciate you all! You keep the Arts alive in RockmART! The visual, performing and literary arts bring hope and meaning to our lives and help pass on traditions in our community. Thanks to those who have given towards our scholarship and helped those in need this year.

Our Floral Expressions Exhibit will be a colorful and happy exhibit with artwork from the whole community. We have 6 Summer camps planned this summer: Theatre Camp I & II; Little Hands, BIG Art; Animation, Pottery, and Art Camp. Sign up soon as there are limited spots.

Juried Art Show 2021 Exhibit

From January 14 - March 11, the Art Gallery was filled with wonderful artwork by 30 different artists in a variety of mediums. The theme was Artist Choice, so they picked their best artwork to show the community. We enjoyed music by Atlanta Sound at the Reception and Award ceremony on January 23. Thanks to Kiki Alexander for making the creative paint brush ribbons and to our hard working volunteers who hung the exhibit and helped with the reception. Congratulations to all of the artists!

Support LOCAL Artists

Check out our Art Gallery and GIFT Shop with Local Arts & Crafts.
We have special handmade items by artists in our NW Georgia community.
We have paintings, prints, photographs, notecards, pottery, jewelry, wood turned bowls and pens, gourd baskets, crocheted toys, ornaments, wine bottle stoppers, fused glass plates, bird houses and more!

Judge's notes about the exhibit:

I was impressed by the creativity expressed during a year in which artists were forced to look within themselves for inspiration as their access to outside influences were somewhat limited through mitigation from COVID-19. Although I don't think all artists in the exhibition expressed themes of the events of the last year, I was struck by the metaphoric interpretations and sometimes stories used to convey comfort and positivity through skillful work, observation, and sometimes humor.

RCAC's Best of Show artwork, Clare Gilliland's "2020 Crazy Quilt" seems to exemplify the ideas of family, memory, and how the challenges we face as people sometimes help us to slow down and reflect on the important things.

Congratulations to all of the artists in the dynamic Juried Art Competition!

"Speedy."

When she was growing up, Elizabeth Mobley always dabbled in some type of creative project, whether it be ceramics, gardening, drawing, or painting.

But she was discouraged by her parents, who told her that art was not a lucrative career.

So, she reluctantly decided to focus on what society considers more "profitable" skills and received a Bachelor of Science degree in management before becoming a technical professional in the Information Technology (IT) industry.

From 1999 to 2015, she worked on backend network administration. Setting up and troubleshooting networks trained her to be logical, while also enabling her to connect with her inner creativity.

The Douglasville artist was introduced to stained glass art in 2005, and she said it renewed her spirit to create again.

"My husband, Charles, turned 50, and we decided to go up to his hometown in Ohio and visit some of his old friends and family there," she said. "We were up there, and his friend's mother made stained glass houses. I just thought they were the coolest thing because they were shiny. That was what

New RCAC Sidewalk

For many years we would walk on the grass to take classes at the Arts Center. In the fall, Jeff Ellis approved for RCAC to proceed with getting this sidewalk. On March 22, 2021 the new sidewalk was poured. THANKS to the City of Rockmart for making this possible. It makes it much easier to walk into the building instead of using steps. It is greatly appreciated!
